Important Borrower Information: Federal law requires financial institutions to obtain sufficient information to verify your identity. You may be asked several questions and to provide one or more forms of identification to fulfill this requirement. In some instances, we may use outside sources to confirm the information. The information you provide is protected by our privacy policy and federal laws.

Important: Read these directions before completing this application. (Check the appropriate box)

- If you are applying for an individual account in your own name and are relying on your own income or assets and not the income or assets of another person as the basis for repayment of the credit request, complete all sections except the co-borrower sections.
- If you are applying for a joint account that you and another person will use, complete all sections, providing information about the co-borrower or user in the co-borrower sections. We intend to apply for joint credit: Borrower Initials _____ Co-Borrower Initials _____
- If you are applying for an individual account but are relying on income from alimony, child support, or separate maintenance, or on the income or assets of another person as the basis for repayment of the credit requested, complete all sections to the extent possible, providing information about the person on whose alimony support or maintenance payments or income or assets you are relying, in the co-borrower sections.

Consumer Installment Loan Disclosures

USA Patriot Act Information Disclosure

To help the government fight the funding of terrorism and money laundering activities, Federal law requires all financial institutions to obtain, verify, and record information that identifies every customer.

What this means for you: When you apply for a loan, we will ask for your name, address, date of birth, and other information that will allow us to identify you. We may also ask to see your driver's license or other identifying documents.

Fair Credit Reporting Act

This notice is provided to you in accordance with § 601 et seq. of the Federal Fair Credit Reporting Act (FCRA). In connection with processing your loan application, we will request a consumer credit report on your credit standing, credit capacity, and creditworthiness from a Consumer Reporting Agency. If adverse action is taken on your loan application, we will advise you of the name, address, and telephone number of the Consumer Reporting Agency and you will have the right to obtain within 60 days of adverse action a free copy of the consumer credit report from the Consumer Reporting Agency. You also have the right to dispute the accuracy of completeness of any information in the credit report furnished by the Consumer Credit Reporting Agency.

New Jersey Right to Choose Own Attorney Disclosure

This disclosure is provided to you pursuant to N.J. Rev. Stat. § 46:10A-6(b).

Your interests and the interests of the lender are or may be different and may conflict. The lender's attorney represents only the lender's interests and does not represent your interests. You are therefore advised to employ an attorney of your choice licensed to practice law in New Jersey to represent your interests.
